LOCAL MINERS OUT ON STRIKE

Technical Question Involved in the Use of White Powder as Explosive

Over a technical question in the use of white powder as an explosive the 525 miners of the Charleroi mine of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal company have been called out on strike. The strike went into effect Thursday and so far there has been little movement toward effecting a settlement. So serious is the question involved that according to the miners unless there is a settlement all the mines of the company will come out.

It is alleged by the miners that a certain price has been paid for white powder by men using it and that a lesser price was charged new men when they were authorized to use it. Discrimination is charged. The trouble is said to have arisen because of the scale made effective last year.

William Hines, district board member and Jack OLeary, international board member are in charge of the strike as miners' representatives. No statement was forthcoming from the local offices of the company concerning the situation, but by many miners the strike is looked upon as a test strike

DR. JOHN S. VAN VOORHIS, PROMINENT AS DOCTOR AND HISTORIAN DIES AT AGE OF 94

Dr. John S. VanVoorhis, one of the best known physicians of Pennsylvania, a widely known historian, one of the organizers of the first railroad built up the Monongahela valley and for years a Republican leader in the Keystone state died at his home on State street, Belle Vernon, this morning at 4:40 o'clock. He would have been 94 years old in May. Dr. Van Voorhis has been bedfast for five months and passed away peacefully. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home, conducted by Rev. Perrin Baker Parkinson's Ferry as it was first byterian church of which Dr. Van Voorhis was an organizer. Interment will be in Rehoboth cemetery.

A member of a noted family Dr. Van Voorhis became one of the most noted. First notice was taken of the name in America in 1698, when record was made of the name Cornelius Coerts Van Voorhis, at Flatlands, Long Island.

Dr. Van Voorhis was born May 8, 1823 ,on what is known as the Vanvoorhis farm near Monongahela City, or Parkinson's Ferry at it was first known. He was the son of Isaac and Mary Hair Van Voorhis. Under the late R. F. Cooper, Esq., he received his first schooling in a little school house on the famous national pike near an historical tollgate near Monongahela. An old carriage factory on Main street Monongahela, was the place where he began his college education under Prof. J. F. Thompson in November 1840 Entering the sophomore class in old Washington college in 1841, Dr. Van Voorhis completed his course and was graduated in 1844, dividing first honors with the late B. W. Allen and D. C. Reed. Upon graduation he entered the office of the late Dr. R. F. Biddle at Monongahela City, then took a course in medicine at the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, from which institution he was graduated on March 25, 1847 He settled in Belle Vernon, Fayette county, May 25, 1847, beginning there his practice of medicine.

On September 7 of the same year he married Miss Betsy Plummer Smith at the residence of her stepfather, Henry Fulton, in Monongahela City. They set up housekeeping in Belle Vernon. Two children Lizzie and Isaac S. were born. Both were given the best possible educations. The former became the wife of J. C. Cunningham of Belle Vernon and died in 1877. Isaac S. Van Voorhis, the son, was educated at Washington and Jefferson college and took up the study of law, being admitted to the bar in Pittsburg in 1878, and continuing in practice there until his death. Dr. Van Voorhis first wife died in the nineties. On December 7, 1899 he wedded Ora M. Overhiser, daughter of John P. and Mary Ann Overhiser at Indianapolis. She survives him.

In his autobiographical sketch written in 1899, Dr. VanVoorhis tells of some of his activities. From Belle Vernon he removed to Monongahela City in 1855, he says, and returned to Belle Vernon in 1858 to remain. It was while residing in Monongahela that he represented Washington county in the State Legislature, and it is from this election that his political activities date.

While in the Legislature Dr. Van Voorhis was on the committee which called together the first regular Republican convention to nominate a candidate for Governor and other officers. He was chairman of the committee on organization, and took pride particularly in his success at securing the nomination of a particular Fayette county friend for Judge of the Supreme court. Dr. Van Voorhis was also a member of the State convention which met in Lancaster in 1875.

In his sketch, Dr.Van Voorhis says: "When I came into Fayette county, the Democrats had full control of everything. To defeat that party the Know Nothing party came into existence and for a short time held sway over the country. I was in the Know Nothing convention at Philadelphia in 1854 which determined the election of James Pollock as Governor, for without the Know Nothing vote he could not have been elected. I have attended more conventions and presided over more than any man who ever lived in the country."

Dr. Van Voorhis was a member of the district Republican committee which arranged a permanent place for nominating candidates for Congress.

One of the things which stands out in his life was that in 1854 of his success in electing a suitable man as county school superintendent of Fayette county under a new law. For his success he received ovations from noted men of all parties in the country and this he says, "gave me the first start as a public man in the county."

Dr. Van Voorhis was appointed an assistant surgeon in the Civil war but did not enter the service. He was a member of the Historical society of Fayette county, a member of the Fayette County Medical Society since 1869, of the State Medical Society since the same year and of the American Medical Association since 1872, attending the meetings of the last-named organization whenever and wherever possible.

The first charter for the first railroad company up the Monongahela valley was secured by Dr. Van Voorhis who was an organizer of the road. He had a dream of a short cut that would bring the road through from Pittsburg by way of Finleyville to his beloved Monongahela City. This dream failed to materialize, but he lived to see a railroad constructed up each side of the Monongahela river, in securing each of which he played an important part. The Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston was the railroad built on the west side of the Monongahela and the McKeesport and Belle Vernon that on the east side. The present river bridge over the Monongahela river at Belle Vernon was built largely as a result of the efforts of Dr. Van Voorhis and his son.

As a doctor Dr. VanVoorhis was noted. He was probably the best known during his active years of any physician in the Monongahela valley and had the reputation of being the most successfully particularly in his treatment of typhoid fever. Along medical lines as well as other he wrote many articles and they found their way into various publications. Of his work he wrote, "I have been present at the birth of nearly two thousand children, as physician. I have kept a register of all and it has been often that I have been consulted to fix dates of births and test qualifications to vote."

A devout Presbyterian, Dr. Van Voorhis took an active interest in all the affairs of the denomination. He held his membership in the Rehoboth Presbyterian church back of Belle Vernon, an historical parish which he helped build up. Yet he raised the money for and superintended the erection of the Belle Vernon Presbyterian church and had it dedicated free of debt. He was the first superintendent of the first Pres-

NEW RAILROAD SCHEDULES FOR COAL ARE SUSPENDED

Local Attorneys Notified of Action of Interstate Commerce Commission in Bituminous Cases

Attorneys Vance & Gibson, of Monongahela and David M. McCloskey, of Charleroi have been notified by the Interstate Commerce Commission that the new proposed schedules of the Pennsylvania Railroad company upon bituminous coal have been suspended until July 15th, 1917. This applies to shipments from one state to another. The Pennsylvania Railroad is trying to get rid of the small shippers and have filed petitions with the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Pennsylvania Commission decided in favor of the shipperssometime ago and a second case is now pending before that body. In all of the proceedings, the railroad is trying to enforce higher rates upon coal loaded from wagons than upon coal loaded from regular tipples. If they succeed, the wagon shippers will be practically put out of business.

WILL DEEPEN RIVER CHANNEL

Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company to Improve Loading Facilities

In order to increase the depth of the channel at their Charleroi mines the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal company has been granted a federal permit from the United States engineers' department at Pittsburg to dredge 10,000 cubic yards of earth from the channel. This will be done close to the tipple in order to better facilitate the loading of the larger and heavier type of steel barges now in use by the Jones and Laughlin Coal company, which concern has been using the entire output of the local coal company since the extension of their road to the river last fall.

The deposit removed from about the tipple will be dumped directly above the dam at Lock No. 4. This will be for the betterment of the dam. It was one of the requirements of the government in granting the permit. Several other similar permits have been issued by the federal government.

CLEANLINESS

Spring cleaning time is about here for the streets., Charleroi in past years has acquired rather a good habit. It is that of spring cleanliness Every year when the weather warms up a bit, Street Commissioner Hormell gets out his men. street hose and equipment and gives the streets a good washing down.

It is the habit of this and many other things that has made Charleroi a good town in which to live. Charleroi knows it and is making its regular thing.

byterian Sunday school established in Belle Vernon.

In his sketch Dr. Van Voorhis mentions a trip to Europe in 1888 with his son. Upon his return to Belle Vernon he was escorted to a public hall by a brass band and there by request made an address telling of his journey abroad, his friends crowding the house to overflowing. He delivered a lecture before the Normal school body at California and before the public schools and citizens of Monongahela.

It was chiefly in his later years that Dr. Van Voorhis devoted attention to his historical work and work in literature. and he has several splendid papers to his credit. A Monongahela valley man born and bred his historical work has been largely of this section. A book, "The Old and New Monongahela," published in 1893 is a valued volumn in many a library. His local history is considered the most dependable available anywhere. He was interested in big things and wrote of them. He gathered documents and papers by the score and in the possession of his wife remain many of great historical value, to say nothing of ancient writings.

Among some of his most interesting and widest circulated works were "Early Navigation in Western Pennsylvania," a valuable treatise which was printed and re-printed in pamphlet and magazine form; "Fevers of the Valley," a medical paper; "The Care of the Insane." and "Sepulchre Against Cremation," in which he uttered a protest against cremation.

In the last score of years Dr. Van Voorhis came to be a popular speaker at all sorts of events and school celebrations. family reunions and community celebrations of all sorts were incomplete without him. He was known not only as the leading citizen of Belle Vernon but one of the best known in western Pennsylvania. He was the oldest alumnus of Washington College. the only member of his class living until 1917.

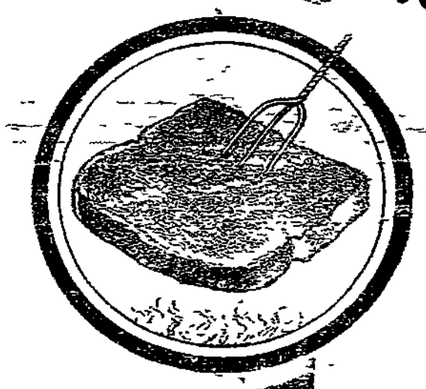
LUCKY STRIKE

LUCKY STRIKE The real Burley Cigarette

It's toasted



THE slice of toast that is made on your modern gas range is pretty good. But do you remember when they made it over the coals of the kitchen stove, with a long toasting fork? Browned just right, crisp, and buttered hot. Those were the days.

We've gone right back to this fine, simple old idea to make Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette. Yes, sir! The tobacco—it's toasted.

We made this discovery after five years of experiment. Before this you couldn't have a ready-made Burley cigarette; flavor wouldn't hold. And you certainly wanted it; look at the sixty million pounds of Burley you poured out of those green, red and blue tin boxes last year. "Blame good tobacco!"

So now go to it; Lucky Strike Cigarettes; delicious, toasted Burley. It's a new flavor—you'll enjoy the idea of the buttered toast.
